	Our staff are all subject to redeployment across all of our settings according to pupil need.

At Oxfordshire Hospital School our priority is to support every pupil by providing excellent, bespoke education during their time with us. We are an enthusiastic and committed team.

We are seeking an experienced teacher of Humanities who is flexible, organised and is passionate about supporting the teaching and learning for young people who have medical or mental health needs. You should be able to teach at least to GCSE level and A-level teaching experience would be desirable. The post holder would initially join our highly motivated and successful team of staff at the Highfield Adolescent Setting; an inpatient hospital for young people between the ages of 11 and 18 with mental health conditions. For more information about the setting, please visit The Highfield Unit website.

Teaching would be 1:1 or in small groups. A full induction programme will be provided for the successful candidate.

We would encourage and warmly welcome enquiries. The job description and application form are available on our website at <https://ohs.oxon.sch.uk/about-us/vacancies/>. Please contact Laura Campbell, School Business Manager, on laura.campbell@ohs.oxon.sch.uk or tel 01865 957480 should you require any further information.

Please send completed application forms to recruitment@ohs.oxon.sch.uk by Monday 19th June 2023. Interview Date to be confirmed.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare and safety of children and young people and promoting equality of opportunity.
